Thank you friends...

The hospitality shown to us by so many people we meet is proving a blessing. We met new Karen friends in Sydney— a warm, friendly reception awaited us! The Karen people are a people group from Burma. Hunted out of their land, many Karen end up in camps for internally displaced persons in Thailand before being resettled in countries such as Australia. What a challenge—a new language to learn, a new culture to understand, new friends to meet, a strange way of doing things, different foods. They need to enroll their children in school, open a bank account. The list seems endless. Wait a minute! That'll be us soon!!

Jesse was recently awarded an armful of trophies for his football achievements including "Player of the year". We are very proud of him!

Benj and Lisa are busy working and setting up their home.

Jai passed all his exams at Uni—gaining credit passes in all subjects. What a star!*

Jordy is growing so quickly and is speaking really well. He prayed before his meal "Tank oo God for Benj. Dinner. Amen". His favourite things are: going to the beach, going to Sunday school and playgroup. His current fun word is hippy motus" (hippopotamus)! Dag!

Thankyou for supporting us as we prepare to Minister to the orphaned children of Thailand.

Love, Allan, Sam, Jesse & Jordy.
