An amazing journey...

What a busy time we have had these last couple of months! We have moved house, spent many hours traveling thousands of miles, and visited with many wonderful people. Last week we traveled to Sydney for a meeting and now we are 'home' for 6 weeks before we 'take off' again -to Victoria to celebrate Jai's 21st birthday and then fly out to the U.S. arriving home just before Christmas. We have finalized our itinerary to the USA. It will be busy! The longest stay in any one

State is 2 weeks and the shortest 3 days. I guess Sam will get over her loathing of flying!!

This is Jesse's last week of school before his exams. He is looking forward to taking a break next year before his University course commences.

We are very grateful to Paul Hazelgrove for developing our website. Another move forward towards the goal of caring for orphaned children. Thank you for your support.

With love,
Allan, Sam, Jesse & Jordy.
